

Life is a little bit like juggling. All of us have balls, or areas of responsibility, that we are trying to keep up in the air. The problem is that sometimes a ball drops, we fail to take care of our area of responsibility. Sometimes more than one ball drops and we feel overwhelmed.

I wish I had the answer, but the Bible does have some principles that apply. Ps. 46:10 says, "Be still, and know that I am God." Putting down the juggling balls on occasion and resting and meditating on God and His word needs to be a priority. Taking time to wait on God can be difficult but results in renewed strength (Isa. 40:31). Be still!

Paul in 1 Cor. 15:58 says, "Be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord." Diligence is imperative if we want to accomplish what God desires. First we diligently seek God (Heb. 11:6) and then we diligently serve God. Both are important. Be steadfast!

It could be that we need to get rid of some of our juggling balls, to choose to say no. We might need to delegate more effectively, or modify how we do things. But there is no doubt in this hectic world of ours that we should both be still and be steadfast. So be it!
